To You . . . . We Dedicate

Gratefully we dedicate this annual to the supporters of Christian education; especially to those who unselfishly, this past year, used their time, talents, and money to make our new building possible. Ever-expanding, our school has launched its way and is marching proudly in full stride toward bringing Christian education to all of Hawaii.

the FACULTY

Giving forth the light of wisdom and knowledge to the students seeking enlightenment is the faculty. Through their encouragement, help, and cooperation, they help to light the paths of the students as they venture into the uncertain future.

Principal's Message

Mr. H. P. McCormick
Principal

Dear Seniors:

Let me rejoice with you as you come to the end of your high school career. I have watched you grow up with a great deal of interest. It has been gratifying, indeed, to see you, on several occasions, make wise decisions, and line up with the forces of good instead of those for evil. As young people, declare total war against carelessness on our highways, crime, alcoholism, greed, corruption, and slums, so that we may have a happier, healthier more wholesome society.

We shall miss you when you go elsewhere for higher learning but the Academy will be a better place for others because you have been here. A nineteenth century poet expressed our feelings in these words of advice:

"To live content with small means;
To seek elegance rather than luxury, and refinement rather than fashion;
To be worthy, not respectable, and wealthy,
not rich;
To study hard, think quietly, talk gently,
act frankly;
To listen to stars and birds, to babes and
sages, with open hearts;
To bear all cheerfully, do all bravely, await occasions, hurry never.
In a word, to let the spiritual, unbidden and unconscious, grow up through the common.
Let this be your symphony."

School History

The Academy is Southern Baptist's effort in Hawaii to carry out the Master's command to teach all nations. It is comprised of two schools according to Mainland designations or three according to the Hawaiian school system, since grades range from first through twelfth.

In this wide spread educational program, the Academy is an infant, for some of these institutions are nearly a hundred years old. This is due, of course, to the fact that mission work for Southern Baptists is relatively new in Hawaii.

In 1946, just five years after the beginning of work in Hawaii, the need for a school became apparent. Hence a request was made to the Foreign Mission Board for a High School with a boarding department. Funds were not available just then, but the Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia accepted the challenge and provided through their Lettie Moon Christmas Offering, funds for establishing the school.

At the time the estimate was made, land was relatively inexpensive. But before it was possible to complete arrangements for the project, real estate prices had greatly increased so that it was impossible to purchase as extensive a plot as was first anticipated. The present location was considered suitable for beginning one phase of the school.

The original buildings provided the minimum space for grades seven through twelve. The first year's enrollment, September, 1949, consisted of 24 students. There were 16 pupils in the Seventh Grade and 8 in the Eighth. The plan was to add a new grade each year until the High School was completed. This plan was followed throughout the beginning period. New students were only accepted for the grades thus formed. This original Eighth Grade was the first graduating class of 1954.

In the meantime the school began to grow from the bottom also. There was a demand for a school to care for the children who were attending the kindergartens in our various churches. The first such class was provided by the Olney Church, when Miss Martha Morrison asked that she be permitted to keep the children from her kindergarten who wished to enter first grade. This plan was followed until third grade was completed. It then became necessary to make other provision for this growing elementary school. It was then that the Academy was asked to take them under her wing. It was possible to accommodate them for the first few years without crowding. Then it became increasingly difficult as both schools developed. In 1952 the first story of the Elementary building was erected. That eased the pressure for that year but it was not until the second story was completed in 1953 that adequate space was provided for 12 classes.

The present school plant, which allows 25 students to a class, will accommodate 300 students. The plan is to keep within the limit so that individual attention will be available for those who need it. The present enrollment is 260.

the SENIORS

Upon the completion of four successful years together at the Hawaiian Baptist Academy, the senior class will soon be treading separate paths with the light in their hands, their hearts, and their souls. The light, which is a symbol of the wisdom and knowledge acquired in our beloved Alma Mater, will be a never-failing guide in the fields we have chosen.

When you walk through the storm,
Keep your head up high;
And don't be afraid of the dark
At the end of the storm is a golden sky—
And the sweet silver song of a lark
Walk on through the wind, walk on through the rain,
Though your dreams be tossed and blown,
Walk on, walk on with hope in your heart,

Prophecy

Several years ago, ten to be exact, I saw the class of '56 graduate at HBA. Since then I have followed each member of that fateful class. Day after day, month after month, year after year, I have followed them through the good times and the bad.

I followed Jewell Field from high school through nursing school and to Saint Francis' Hospital where she is now a nurse in the psychopathic ward.

Remember the great evangelical couple on the front pages of the national newspapers who have shaken the entire world with their great faith in God? I always believed Rebecca Liberato would be the woman behind a great man.

Perhaps all has not happened exactly as in her youthful dreams, but Fortune has seen fit to endow Beverly Imoto with ease and comfort, a loving husband, and a happy home.

High above mother earth is Kaea Nui. Lately she invested in a private jet plane so that she and her hula troupe can manage to meet the different engagements all over the world. Soon, however, she will retire permanently from the entertainment field to get married and start her home.

In any of the "Gourmet" restaurants and drive-ins in Honolulu, Aileen Arakawa may be seen sampling new recipes, ordering meats and produce, and preparing menus. After majoring in Home Economics in college, Aileen and her cousin started their own restaurant. Their low prices and excellent quality food brought a demand for more of these restaurants where the average person could dine like the elite.

Completing his internship at Queen's I saw Dr. Robert Hamilton, M.D., as he treated a patient in the emergency hospital. During the last ten years, the going was sometimes pretty rough but he finally made it by keeping his nose to the grindstone.

Just leaving today from Egypt to Germany is Barbara Shell, who is traveling around the world as an exchange teacher. While in Japan she met June Murosaki. June's husband is stationed there temporarily as his firm's Far East field agent.

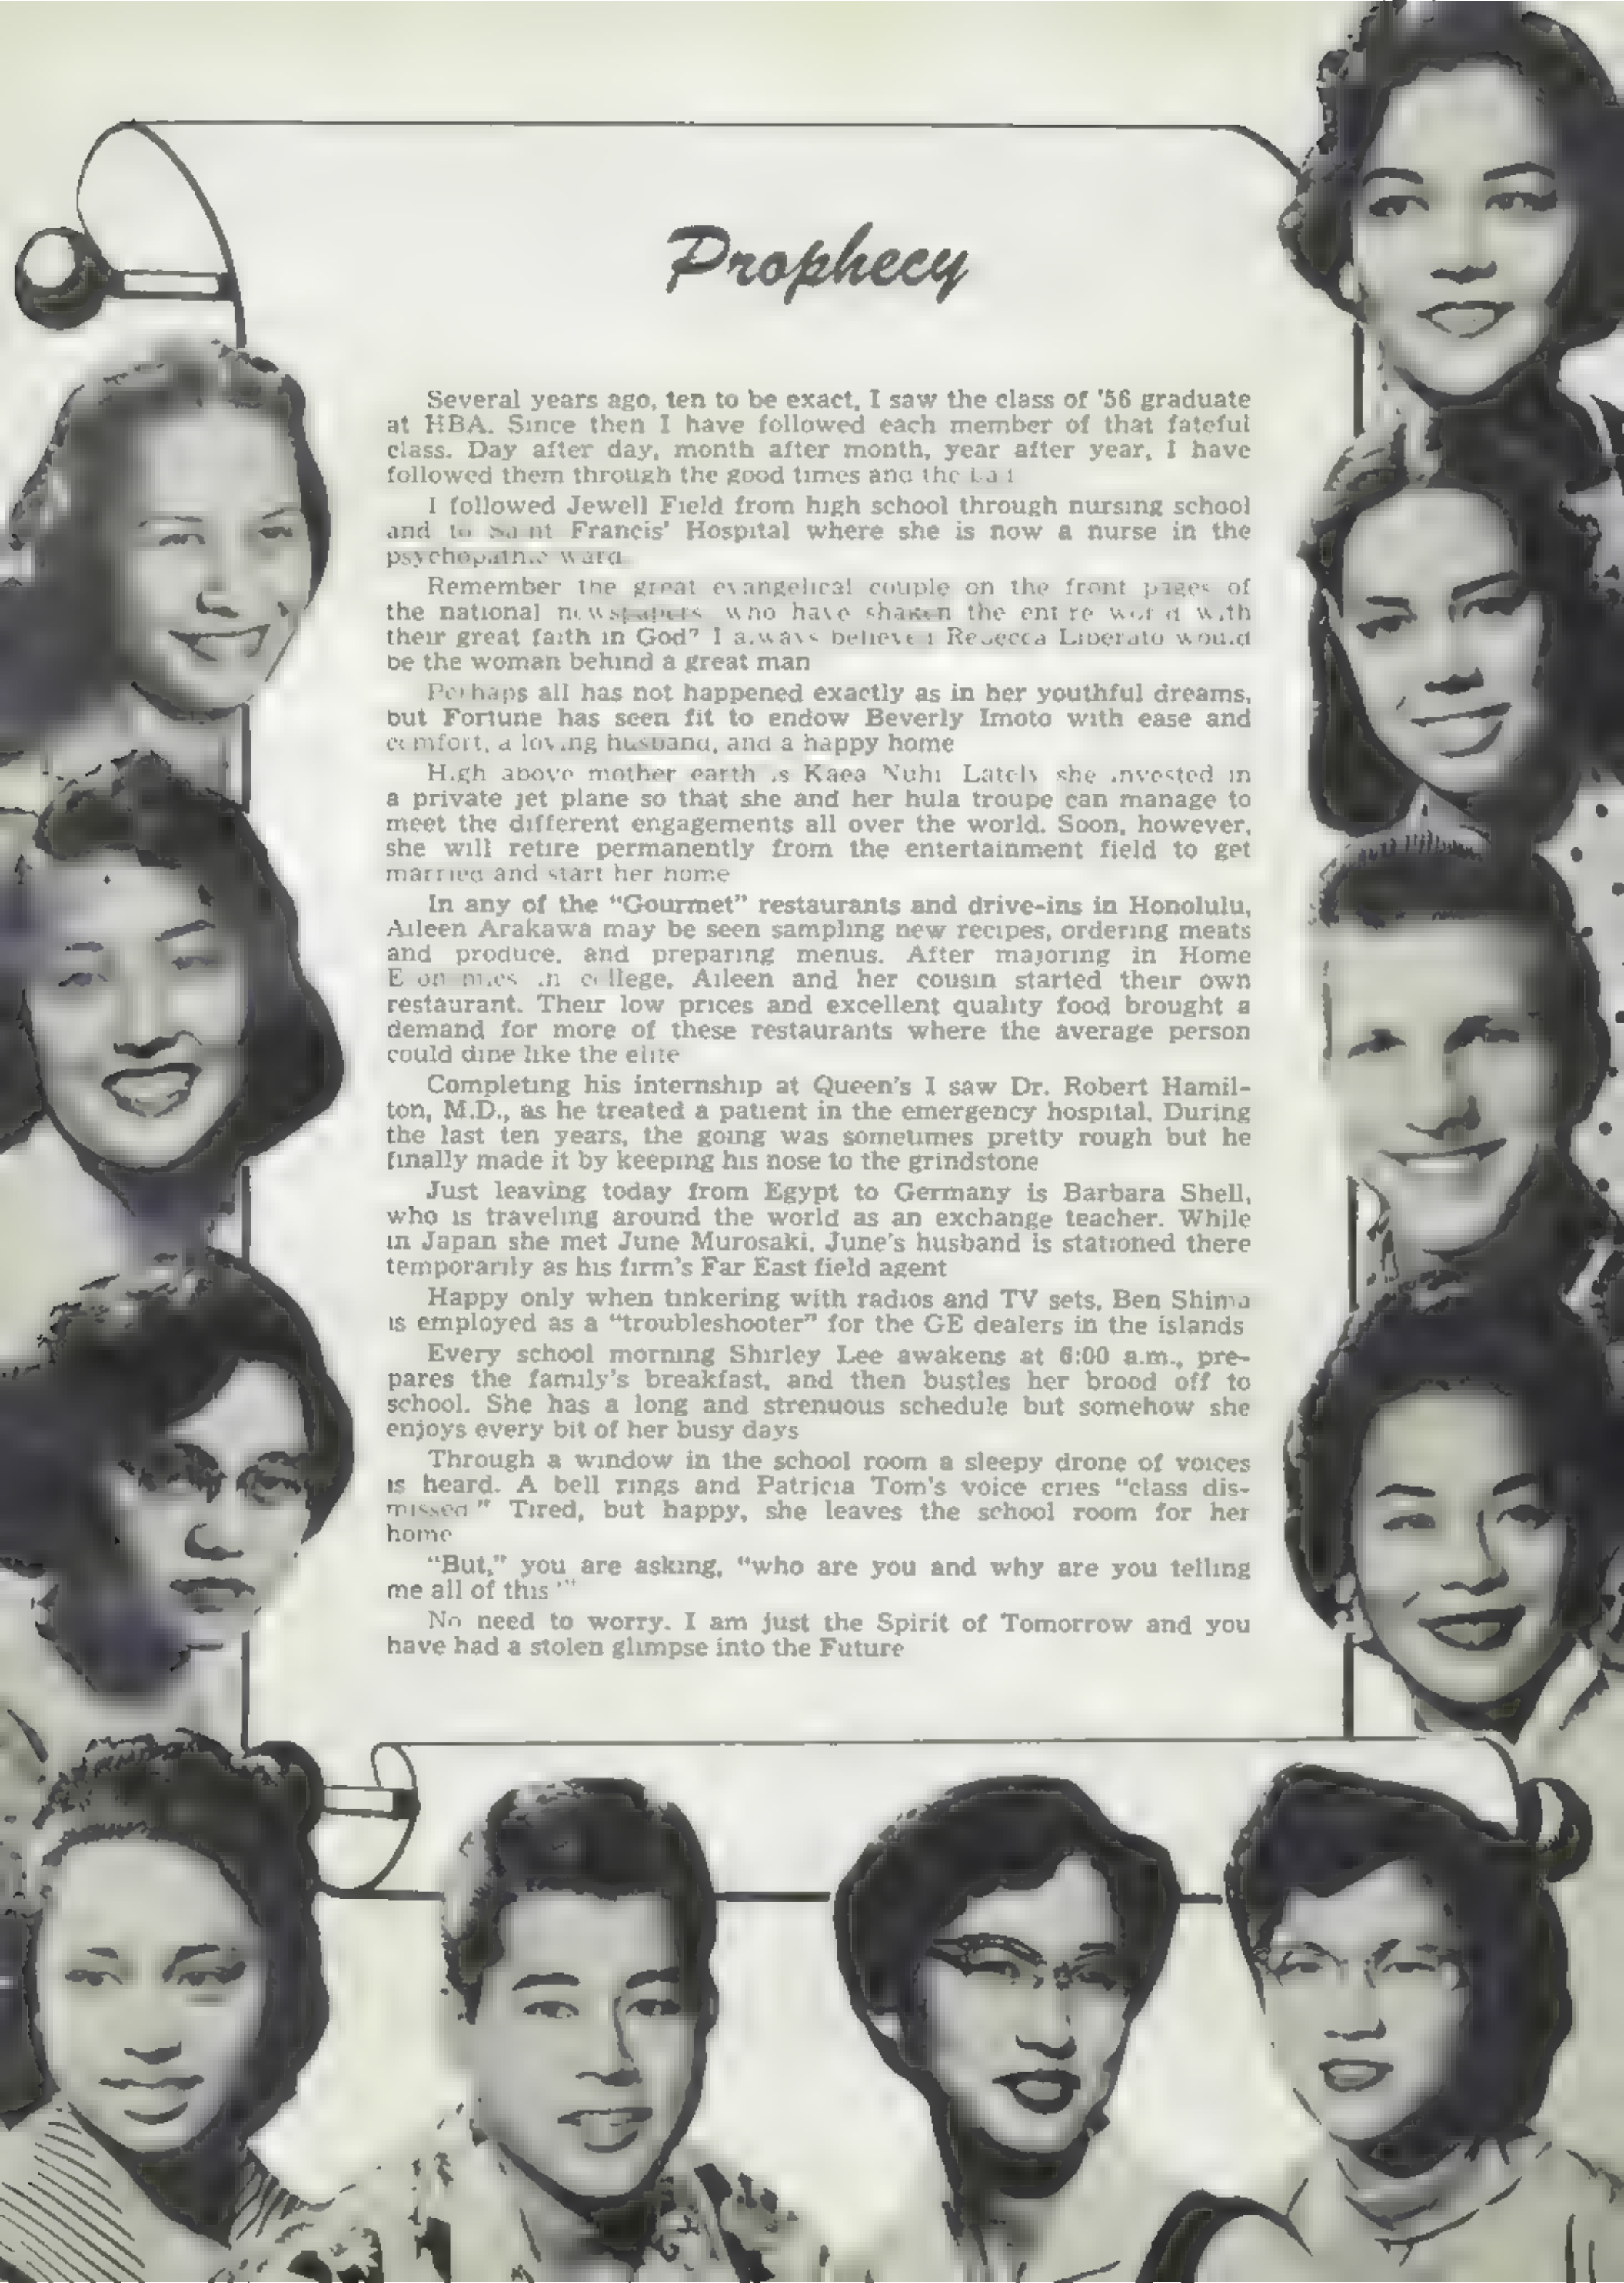

Happy only when tinkering with radios and TV sets, Ben Shima is employed as a "troubleshooter" for the GE dealers in the islands.

Every school morning Shirley Lee awakens at 6:00 a.m., prepares the family's breakfast, and then bustles her brood off to school. She has a long and strenuous schedule but somehow she enjoys every bit of her busy days.

Through a window in the school room a sleepy drone of voices is heard. A bell rings and Patricia Tom's voice cries "class dismissed." Tired, but happy, she leaves the school room for her home.

"But," you are asking, "who are you and why are you telling me all of this?"

No need to worry. I am just the Spirit of Tomorrow and you have had a stolen glimpse into the Future.

the ELEMENTARY DEPT.

As the grade school children are led by Miss Laura Cornwell, elementary supervisor, they will gradually come to see and appreciate the torch of wisdom that they will some day possess. Keep climbing the steps that lead on to higher education!

Miss Laura Cornwell—B.A.
Elementary Supervisor

If there has been one song in my heart that has expressed my past year's experiences in the Hawaiian Baptist Academy, I think that I would say, "It has been a song of praise and thanksgiving."

A gift from the Foreign Mission Board and generous donations from friends have enabled us to complete the second story on our elementary building. Other contributions have made it possible to give special assistance to deserving pupils and to develop and maintain a high standard of scholastic training. But by far the most satisfying observation has been the fine school spirit exhibited, on every side, as a result of the Christian teaching and spiritual growth of our boys and girls.

After reading the Bible daily and hearing the Word taught, many have made decisions for the Lord. In the words of the Psalmist, I can truly say, "Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving."

Again highlighting the year's work for the Journalism Club was the sponsoring of the school annual "The Light." Now in its fourth year of publication, "The Light" is printed by Mirro-Graphic Yearbooks in Glendale, California. The pictures are done by City Art Works.

Under the advisorship of Mr. W. D. Bigham and with the help of a small but capable staff, work on "The Light" was completed by the latter part of February. Editing the annual is a year-long project. After the actual work on the Annual is completed, the subscription and money-raising programs are fully put into action. All artwork in this edition was done by Walter Takeda, art editor.

For the past two years, the Ka Leo O Ka Kula has been printed at the Farrington High School Print Shop, although it made its first few appearances in mimeograph form. What is science? Science is in part the search and research of the elements of nature to find out for one's self the solution to the various questions asked and experiments made into the realms of this wonderful and mysterious world where we live for the betterment of its inhabitants.

In conjunction with these ideas, the Academy Science Club has recently been organized not only as a means of enjoyment for its members but also as a source of informative education for those who are interested in this field.

Because of the recent establishment of this group little has been done in the way of constructive projects but in the very near future we are planning the invitation of guest speakers, the use of motion pictures, and excursions to various places.

As amateurs we have begun to find for ourselves the satisfaction of seeing something initiated and accomplished as a result of our own efforts. We hope sincerely that the club will continue to grow very rapidly.

Under the leadership of the music instructor, Mrs. McCashin, a music club has been organized for the students of the Intermediate and High School division of the Hawaiian Baptist Academy. Its purpose is to build a better school spirit and to learn to appreciate better music.

The object of this club is to increase the music department's need and to broaden music interests. This organization has drawn a Constitution which serves as a guide.

Our first project was sponsoring a paper drive for which the money obtained went to the purchasing of needed articles for the music club and school choir.

Art Department

The art of drawing has been used since the time of the cave men to express thoughts and beauty. In our art classes, under the instruction of Miss Lillie Hundley, art appreciation and drawing are stressed.

Through this medium of art, the students are given a chance to express themselves. The art classes have especially enjoyed working with special ball linoleum cutters.

Music Instructor

In 1955-56, the choir, the girls' chorus, the double quartet sang, and the school band played under the direction of Mrs. William McCaslin for the enjoyment of others. The double quartet, a mixed group of boys and girls, have brought cheer to the sick by singing on the first Sunday of every month at the Maluhia Home.

On the Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, and May Day programs, the choir and other special choral groups rendered many favorite selections a cappella. The choir, 48 voices strong, has grown larger and more polished than ever before.

The Christmas program was the special project of the Music Department. The talents of both the high school and elementary students were combined to present one of the most elaborate programs ever staged here.

Home Economics

The Home Economics Department has grown comparatively larger since its beginning, in class number and home economics supplies. There are more sewing machines, modern cooking appliances and new time-saving utensils which fit for this fast moving modern generation.

Some of the subjects taken up in the different classes include: clothing, meal planning, budgeting, child care, health and first aid, interior decorating, good grooming, etiquette, manners and entertaining, consumer buying, family relations and careers. A course is offered to the twelfth grade boys, too, for one semester.

Girls' P. E.

Mr. Threlkeld's Boys' P.E. class has been divided into three teams, the Bums, Rams, and the 49'ers. These three teams have competed against each other in basketball, football and different types of dynamic tensions tests. The Bums have placed first in the football division and the 49'ers have taken the honors in the basketball competition.

Under the coaching of Mrs. Watts, P.E. director, the P.E. girls have organized into two teams, the H. B. Aires with Lucy Kila as captain and Melody Nobori assistant, and the Jolliettes with Nancy Humphrey as captain and Catalina Cabogas assistant.

The girls, to show that they could not be outdone by the boys, have included in their program volleyball, basketball, callisthenics, and even track.
